Richard Scott Salon & Day Spa To Reopen

WRITTEN BY WESTCHESTER.COM

TUESDAY, 19 JUNE 2007

Mount Kisco, NY – Richard Scott Salon and Day Spa has announced that it will open its doors after a devastating fire destroyed a portion of the facility on January 20, 2007.

The 7,000-square-foot Richard Scott

Salon and Day Spa will officially reopen on June 26, 2007 at 15-17 South Moger Avenue, Mt. Kisco.

While displaced from the fire, Richard Scott employees were welcomed by local salons, enabling them to continue serving their clientele. The salons include the Zazo Salon, Kids Style and Adam and Eve in Bedford Hills, as well as Salon Elle in Mt. Kisco. The day spa staff was graciously hosted by the Saw Mill Club in Mt. Kisco. Not only did nearby stores provide space and equipment for Richard Scott's staff, but because of their immediate response and unwavering support, Richard Scott employees missed only one day of work after the fire.

To commemorate its grand reopening and to thank their neighbors, a private invitation-only event will be held at the salon later this month. To thank the greater Westchester community, Richard Scott Salon and Day Spa will plant two Bradford pear trees, one in Shoppers Park and another in the promenade alongside South Moger Avenue, to benefit the Mt. Kisco Beautification Committee.

"We would like to thank our gracious neighbors and our loyal clients. This event is also a tribute to the brave volunteer firefighters at the Mt. Kisco Fire Department, as well as the many other fire departments across Westchester who responded to the call," said Ricky Mason and Joseph Norris, salon owners, Richard Scott Salon and Day Spa.
